

Activities Undertaken : 2019-2020

Tree Plantation

To take step towards the green campus the enviro-club organised the Tree plantation activity in the college campus on dated 14/07/2019. All the teaching, non-teaching staffs and Students of various departments actively involved in this event. They planted the seedlings of Azadirachtaindika (KaduNeeb) and take a pledge to care and develop for nurture the nature. Enviro-Club also organise the tree plantation activity off the campus in the Keval Colony, Amravati on dated 25/07/2019 to take step towards the green society.

Environment based film screening

To make the awareness about the environment in among students the enviro-club was organised the documentary screening namely 'Sonic Sea' on dated 05/08/2019. The Sonic Sea documentary produced by the NRDC & availed by Environment Education Fund. The students of enviro-club enjoy this film screening and aware about the degradation of environment due to involvement of human activities.

Biodiversity Survey in college campus

To study the environmental sustainability in the college campus the enviro-club conducted the survey of diversity of animals and plants on dated 13/08/2019. Students of enviro-club along with the teachers identify and classify the plant and animal species. The number of species was counted by the students and observes the food chains of present in the campus.

MOU with Disha Foundation

To promote the academic interest of the students towards the environment the enviro-club form the MOU with Disha foundation on dated 20/08/2019. Disha foundation is the well-known Non-Government Organisation in the field of Environment protection, awareness and environmental education.

Film Screening on Devasting Palm Oil Industry

To make the awareness in the students towards the environmental issues the enviro-club organise the documentary screening on Devasting palm oil industry on dated 24/08/2019. A half hour documentary produced by the year's project starring the famous Hollywood star Harrison Ford was screened which emphasized on investigating about palm oil industry in its roots i.e. the palm oil manufacturing mills in Indonesia.

One day excursion at Fish Culture Centre

Enviro-Club, VidyaBharatiMahavidyalaya was organized one educational tour at Fish Culture Centre, Mahan, Dist- Akola on dated 29/08/2019. This visit was organized with prior permission of Regional Fishery Commissioner Office, Amravati and guidance of Dr. Rathod, Assistant Fishery Development Officer, Fish Culture Centre, Mahan, Dist- Akola. Ku.NehaDeshbhartar, Ku. PratikshaBelsare and Mr. AbhijeetJanjewar have taken hard efforts and initiative under the guidance of Dr. Y. D. Akhare, Convener, Enviro-Club and tour in-charge, which made this visit a grand success. Total 50 students along with 2 faculty members have joined this tour.

Cleanliness drive during GanpatiVisarjan Festival

To take the steps towards the Clean and Green Society the enviro-club organised the cleanliness drive during the GanpatiVisarjan Festival on dated 12/09/2019. In Amravati during this festival the worships materials along with Ganpati Idol were thrown into the Chatri Lake and disturb the aquatic ecosystem, enviro-club collected these materials in separate tank and disposes it properly.

Film Screening on save First Gigawatt down

To make the awareness in the students towards the environmental issues the enviro-club organise the documentary screening on save First Gigawatt down on dated 14/09/2019. Two part of short film- First Gigawatt down, produced by 'Footprints to wings' were screened and explained by Mr.RohitGangwani student member of enviro-club. It was about creating adaptability for climate crisis in daily life by treating climate crisis as a sport like national pastime.

Cleanliness programme during Trade Fair

To take step towards the green and clean campus, the enviro-club conducted the cleanliness activity during Trade Fair on dated 18/09/2019 in college campus, during these activity enviro-club members collected the plastic waste etc. were collected and dispose it proper manner.

Guest lecture on environment protection

To aware the students for environment protection the enviro-club organised the guest lecture of Mr. YadavTarte, Director Disha Foundation, Amravati on dated 21/09/2019. It is an interactive activity to promote academic interest of the students.

Documentary screening on save Aarey Campain

Enviro-club organised the documentary screening on save Aarey Campain on dated 11/10/2019 to aware the students for environment protection by explaining the story of India's only urban forest-Aarey and why it's being cut and how people are protesting its deforestation.

House hold survey on Green Literacy Programme

To find out the awareness of the people towards the green practices in their houses, the enviro-club organised the house hold survey on Green Literacy Programme on dated 11/10/2019. This survey was conducted in different area around college like Suyog colony, Crist colony, Keshav colony and State Bank colony.

Street rally and awareness drive for Green Diwali

To create the awareness about the hazards of fire crackers in the society the enviro-club organised the street rally and awareness drive for Green Diwali on dated 17/10/2019. Enviro club marched from college up to Adivasi Nagar. Students also interacted with locals of the said residential areas and handed out pamphlets which contained scientific information about wrongs in fireworks.

